

Black Belt Test Candidate Guideline

6 Months Prior to the Black Belt Test (except for Cho Dan Bo)

All E Dan and Sam Dan candidate must be in good standing at least 6 months prior to the Dan test. Anyone who has expired membership 6 months prior to the test, needs to contact the HQs or to visit the website below to renew the membership.

<https://form.jotform.com/wtsdahqs/DanRenew>

2-6 Months Prior to the Black Belt Test

Your chief instructor will submit your name as a Dan test candidate to Regional Director and let you know you are going to test at Regional Dan test during upcoming Dan test cycle. During this time, you need to prepare for a written test and write an essay.

You need to submit testing fee and other related fees to your chief instructor. Please follow your school policy for the payment.

Please visit the following page to register your promotion test after you are notified by your chief instructor and after you finish your essay. This form is due by the date your Region has set. Typically at least 2 months prior to the physical test. The linked form below replaces Dan membership application form and Dan promotion application form in the past.

<https://form.jotform.com/wtsdahqs/DanTest>

0-2 Months Prior to the Black Belt Test

Please train hard and stay well so that you can successfully complete your Dan test. You can check your promotion status at wtsda.com. Please visit the website and claim your account to view all your prior training history and the test status.

<https://www.wtsda.com>

